Ballarat Opera Festival

Victorian Opera respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Owners of Country throughout Australia. We recognise their continuing connection to lands, waterways and communities through song, dance and storytelling.

We pay our respects to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and their Elders past and present.

Always was, always will be.

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Step through the door, anything can happen. That is the invitation we at Victorian Opera offer in 2025.

Victorian Opera has a proud tradition of pushing the envelope when it comes to programming. We have no complete reliance on the Top 10 operas, we always reinterpret the great operatic canon and we mix it up with pieces out of left field.

We are serious about our music making and we want to give audiences in Melbourne the chance to discover new operas, all built around the best Australian artists available. The offerings in the 2025 programme were all major revelations to me when I first heard them, and their sheer power blew me away. So, here's to more revelations for more people this year.

Our aim is for audiences to ask themselves: "How did I live without knowing this piece existed?"

Continuing Victorian Opera's commitment to re-examine the great classics of music theatre, we are proud to present one of Stephen Sondheim's most iconic works: the 1971 masterpiece Follies. The works of Sondheim have made up a large part of recent Victorian Opera seasons and we are now thrilled to add the holy grail of Sondheim's achievements.

Follies has never been presented in a full-scale production in Australia. Some special concert versions live in the distant memory of many musical theatre aficionados but, of all of Sondheim's works, this is the most elusive and, therefore, on the bucket list of many theatregoers.

Follies blends the past and present. It brilliantly showcases living legends, current music theatre stars and a new generation of artists.

The set and costume of Follies will be designed by Tony Award-winner Roger Kirk, a master of theatrical illusion, with lighting by Gavan Swift and choreography by Yvette Lee. They'll be joined by our own Phoebe Briggs conducting Orchestra Victoria.

We look forward to bringing the Follies extravaganza to life, creating the faded grandeur of a soon-to-be-demolished theatre, as well as glitz, glamour and artifice. Don't miss this rare opportunity to see a legendary show.

In April, we are proud to be presenting Jonathan Dove's Mansfield Park, our first opera in the newly refurbished Her Majesty's Theatre Ballarat.

This intimate opera beautifully captures the essence of Jane Austen's beloved novel, merging the themes of love, societal expectations and personal growth with the added allure of an historical setting. Enjoy the hidden world of the Regency drawing room as we dive into this timeless tale of manners, marriage and money.

Each year we relish the challenge of taking the magic of opera to students from diverse backgrounds. In 2025, we will present The Lyrebird's Voice, a new Australian work composed by Peter Rutherford with a libretto by Jayde Kirchert. The Lyrebird's Voice explores themes of belonging and welcoming through the medium of the Australian bush.

We will present this powerful story in three theatres in the outer suburban ring of Melbourne, enabling new audiences to experience a piece that celebrates finding one's voice.

In August, we are delighted to present a fresh take on The Abduction from the Seraglio, Mozart's early exploration of the perils facing young love. It is a virtuosic score and never fails to delight an audience with its fresh and energetic brilliance. The drama's fundamental tension of East versus West could not be more pertinent. Mozart's genius chronicles this in a sublime musical way.

Mozart's glorious score will be conducted by Chad Kelly and sung in German with spoken dialogue in English, in a new translation by director and librettist Constantine Costi.

In October, we are proud to present one of the great operas of the 20th Century, Katya Kabanova, by one of the greatest operatic composers of all time: Leoš Janáček. Never-before-seen in Melbourne, Janáček's searing, powerful work is as devastating as it is beautiful. It is a riveting story with lush, romantic music inspired by Slavic folk songs.

Katya Kabanova is conducted by Australian/British conductor and Janáček specialist, Finnegan Downie Dear. The orchestral scale of this work is monumental, and we are delighted to partner with the Australian National Academy of Music (ANAM), providing an opportunity for young musicians to deliver this glorious score. Young Australian director Heather Fairbairn makes her VO debut, leading an extraordinary creative team.

This is grand opera on an intimate scale.

As our final offering for the year, Horti Hall, our home, will be the setting for our VO Emerges opera: the quirky Australian Opera Boojum! by Martin and Peter Wesley-Smith.

Not quite an opera, not quite a musical comedy, Boojum! is an irresistible, contemporary snark hunt. Based on Lewis Carroll's legendary poem

The Hunting of the Snark, the piece is nothing short of a deadly serious piece of fun. This is the perfect work to showcase the rising stars of opera in Melbourne.

So please, step through our door in 2025 to find the remarkable, the innovative, the diverse and the extraordinary. Each and every production is a revelation and a celebration.

We'll see you at the opera.

Australia's first ever fully staged production of Stephen Sondheim's most glamorous musical.

In a run-down theatre scheduled for demolition, former chorus girls reunite to honour their performances there during the interwar years. The theatre is ramshackle and the harshness of age has tarnished the rosy tint of their nostalgia. But as the women remember those glamorous years, the faded theatre is propelled back through time and transforms into its former grandeur. Sparkling ghosts of their youth perform old numbers, and the women's unfinished business soon becomes clear.

Join us as we enter Stephen Sondheim's world of 1971 Broadway and experience the iconic, rallying cry of "I'm still here!" filling St Kilda's Palais Theatre. Sondheim's score is a loving tribute to show music from the 1920s, '30s and '40s, while also turning old ideas about musical theatre on its head.

This performance features both Australian musical theatre royalty and emerging stars, with Tony Award-Winning designer Roger Kirk creating the exquisite set and costumes.

CHAMBER OPERA

Composed by Jonathon Dove
Libretto by Alasdair Middleton
Adapted from the novel by Jane Austen

Intimate, Regency-era performances of marriage, manners and money.

Published in 1814, Jane Austen's Mansfield Park tells the story of Fanny Price who, as a girl, was sent from her impoverished family to live with her wealthy relatives in their opulent manor. As a young woman of marrying age, Fanny must navigate her new social environment, including the romantic entanglements and moral dilemmas of her cousins.

Jonathan Dove's musical adaptation of Mansfield Park invites guests to be a fly on the wall in Jane Austen's world of family drama, marriage negotiations, class and flirtation. Intimate performances will be held in the lavish rooms of historic homes such as Ripponlea and Werribee Mansion, accompanied by four hands on a grand piano. Another performance will be held in the iconic Her Majesty's Theatre Ballarat, with a full orchestral score.

Featuring some of Australia's finest performers, this production will sparkle with style, wit, and Georgian decorum.

FAMILY SHOW

NEW WORK

A story developed by Peter Rutherford and six youth participants of the New Work Opera Studio 2023: Asmira Adams, Xavier Grindlay, Alexis King, Agnieszka Markwell, Amelia Mason and Anushka Tiwari

*Libretto & Lyrics by Jayde Kirchert
Additional Music by Peter Rutherford*

A family-friendly opera about the power of your voice.

Have you ever heard a lyrebird's call? You may have, but mistaken it for something else – these ornate birds are expert copycats, mimicking all sorts from kookaburras to camera shutters.

In this family-friendly opera, one trickster lyrebird goes a step too far and gets in trouble with their friends in the flock. The other birds banish the lyrebird and curse them: never again will the lyrebird be able to use their own voice. From now on, it's mimicry only.

Alone in the bush, the lyrebird meets a quirky assortment of Australian animals, where they discover the power of being different. With performances in the outer suburban ring of Melbourne, audiences will meet beetles, a wombat, a kangaroo, a ringtail possum, a jittery emu, all manner of native birds, and a cunning cat.

This sweet story was developed by Peter Rutherford and six youth participants of the New Work Opera Studio 2023. Told with colour, Australian spirit and a big dose of humour, this opera imparts important lessons on identity and the ways in which we use our voice.

FULLY-STAGED OPERA

Composed by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Libretto by Gottlieb Stephanie with reimagined text from Constantine Costi

Based on Christoph Friedrich Bretzner's 'Belmont und Constanze, oder Die Entführung aus dem Serail'

Almost 250 years after its debut in Vienna, Mozart's masterpiece remains as thrilling as ever.

The Abduction from the Seraglio is the epitome of Mozart's musical genius. With bold, contemporary staging and updated libretto, Victorian Opera is reimagining this opera for modern audiences.

The darkly comic opera tells the story of Konstanze and Blonde, who are kidnapped by the mysterious Pasha Selim. He holds them captive and falls desperately in love with Konstanze.

Konstanze's fiancé Belmonte attempts a daring rescue with the help from his trusted right-hand man Pedrillo, Blonde's sweetheart. But their efforts are thwarted by Pasha Selim's villainous offsider Osmin.

Weaved between the drama of heroism and suffering are moving moments of unrequited love, unshakeable loyalty, and even a few laughs. Mozart's score is rich with feeling, nuance and breathless energy. It is a historic masterpiece of theatre that everyone should see at least once, if they have the chance.

FULLY-STAGED OPERA

20TH CENTURY OPERA

Composer and librettist Leoš Janáček
Based on 'The Storm' by Alexander Ostrovsky

This is opera at its most raw.

In a provincial town, Katya's dull, loveless life is made worse by her tyrannical mother-in-law, Kabanicha. She longs for freedom and, when her husband leaves on business, she is swept into a brief but passionate romance with an outsider, Boris, who has loved Katya from afar. When her husband returns, she finds herself tormented by her guilty conscience and the pressures of society.

Katya Kabanova is a turbulent love story by Czech composer Leoš Janáček that does not shy away from raw, human feeling. Anguish, resolve, guilt and love are put on full, inescapable display via impressive audio-visual effects and powerful performances from the cast.

Janáček's score is famously lyrical. Inspired by Slavic folk songs, the score captures beauty and tragedy in equal measures and will remain with you long after the curtain has fallen.

VO EMERGES

Composed by Martin Wesley-Smith
Libretto by Peter Wesley-Smith
Based on Lewis Carroll's 'The Hunting of the Snark'

"But oh, beamish nephew, beware of the day; If your Snark be a Boojum! For then; You will softly and suddenly vanish away" - Lewis Carroll: The Hunting of the Snark

With dark twists and humorous turns, Boojum! blends the much-loved tale of Alice in Wonderland with Lewis Carroll's nonsensical poem The Hunting of the Snark.

Meanwhile, it provides an imagined insight into the writer and the sensational world he created. Boojum! will transport you into his psyche as he grapples with his dual identities: the Reverend Charles Dodgson, and his pen name Lewis Carroll, the beloved children's author. It will introduce you to an array of characters from both these worlds. It follows a young Alice as she meets folk from Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland series, and it examines the relationship between Dodgson and the real-life inspiration for Alice, Alice Liddell.

Sitting somewhere between opera and musical comedy, Boojum! will be performed as part of our VO Emerges program.

And what is a Snark? What is a Boojum? Well, that's up to you.

EDUCATION

ACCESS ALL AREAS: LIVESTREAM PROGRAM

Victorian Opera's renowned Access All Areas: Livestream Program returns in 2025, providing Primary School students an exciting backstage pass to the opera.

Four interactive workshops, livestreamed direct to classrooms across Victoria, allow students to meet and hear the opera singers in the production, explore the story, discover how the director shapes the action on stage, observe an orchestral rehearsal and learn about the creation of the costumes, sets and lighting designs.

The four-week program concludes with a performance of The Lyrebird's Voice – a new work created by Peter Rutherford and Jayde Kirchert via New Work Opera Studio. Performances and workshops will take place at The Round (Nunawading), Frankston Arts Centre and Darebin Arts Centre – live on stage or available to livestream.

Victorian Opera's Access All Areas: Livestream Program is supported by a downloadable Education Resource that aligns to the Victorian Curriculum Learning Areas of Music and Drama as well as the Literacy, Intercultural and Personal, and Social General Capabilities.

VOYCE / YOUTH OPERA PROGRAM

The Victorian Opera Youth Chorus Ensemble (VOYCE) re-imagines the potential of opera and classical music for aspiring singers. Bringing together like-minded and equally passionate young people, VOYCE rehearses a range of operatic repertoire to develop skills essential to opera chorus roles.

Throughout the school year, participants have access to professional singers, répétiteurs and directors from the performing arts industry who provide educational and performance-based expertise. Members also have the chance to perform, which allows the practical application of skills learnt and strengthens the pathway into the company's newly established VO Emerges Program.

Directed by opera singer, composer and music educator Angus Grant, VOYCE provides weekly training for secondary school and tertiary students between the ages of 13-20.

VO EMERGES PROGRAM

The VO Emerges Program encourages and supports emerging singers, composers, designers and directors with less than 10 years of professional practice in the industry.

An annual dedicated production is programmed to allow emerging practitioners to explore their artform. These practitioners work with experts and mentors before presenting their work to audiences.

VICTORIAN OPERA EMERGING

ARTIST OPERA PRIZE

This program is run in conjunction with the VO Emerges Program and enables recipients to work in residence with Victorian Opera for up to a year, providing opportunities to perform in the company's productions and recitals. Recipients also receive private coaching from Victorian Opera's Artistic Director and music staff.

The Opera Prize forms a major component of this prize and is awarded to an emerging artist to assist them in developing their operatic career. The winner of the Opera Prize is due to be announced in December 2024.

Victorian Opera is grateful to Dr. Michael Stubbs & Malcolm Roberts, Mary Davidson & the Family of the Late Frederick R Davidson AM, and Joy Selby-Smith for their generous support of Victorian Opera's Emerging Artist Opera Prize and the VO Emerges Program.

JOIN OUR CHORUS OF PATRONS

Victorian Opera greatly values the generosity of our Chorus of Patrons. Each year we welcome new members into our ever-growing circle of Patrons through our dynamic Patrons' Engagement Program.

As Victoria's state opera company and a key player in the National Performing Arts Partnership Framework, we recognise that Patrons are pivotal to our continued growth and ensure our future success. By making an annual contribution at a membership level of their choosing, Patrons join an exclusive network of likeminded supporters and gain access to unique opportunities within our Patrons' Engagement Program.

In 2025 we are thrilled to offer our Patrons even more unique activities and events, providing a greater variety of bespoke and customised opportunities.

The 2025 Patrons' Engagement Program will include:

REHEARSAL SERIES

Enjoy an exclusive sneak peek into our rehearsal process at Horti Hall, Victorian Opera's home and creative hub. Experience firsthand how a production comes to life, from the early stages of rehearsal to the grand opening night. This new series allows Patrons to see our talented artists and technicians in action, and to experience firsthand how their support fuels our work.

OPERA PRIZE WINNER RECITALS

Welcome the two new recipients of the Dr Michael Stubbs & Malcolm Roberts Opera Prize and the Mary Davidson & the family of the late Frederick R Davidson AM Opera Prize, generously supported by Joy Selby-Smith. Each winner will perform an intimate recital exclusively for Patrons at Horti Hall.

EDUCATION AND YOUTH PROGRAMS

Discover how our Education and VO Emerges Programs are nurturing the next generation of artists. Patrons gain an insight into the impact of their support in the developing careers of artists, creatives and theatre technicians.

PATRONS NIGHT

Patrons holding tickets to our productions may attend a special Patrons' evening before or after a performance. This function provides the opportunity to meet fellow supporters and hear from our Artistic Director or key members of the Victorian Opera creative team.

All Patrons' Engagement Program activities are shared on our website and via our monthly Patrons' Prelude e-newsletter.

By making an annual gift of $500 or more, you'll become an essential voice in our Chorus of Patrons, working together to nurture emerging talent and sustain the vibrant art form we all hold dear.

ENCORE SOCIETY

Leaving a Gift in Will is a beautiful way for your donation to resonate for generations to come. It's a powerful statement of your commitment to our work, and a practical way to ensure that Victorian Opera remains a company of artistic excellence. After securing the future of your loved ones, we invite you to consider making a Gift to Victorian Opera. Your contribution will help us continue to inspire and delight audiences, ensuring that our music remains an enduring part of the community well into the future.

ABOUT US

We are Victoria's state opera company. Your opera company.

While honouring opera's centuries-long traditions, we also strive to evolve. Victorian Opera prides itself on productions that are accessible, relevant, and hold true to the artform's boundless creativity.

Forefront to our mission is the commitment to presenting new Australian opera and musical theatre. We identify topical material, commission and workshop new scores and text, before producing never-before-seen productions. Victorian Opera premieres at least one new Australian opera or music theatre work each year, with 37 new works commissioned since the company formed in 2005.

Another core focus is to create opportunities for emerging artists across the sector, from singers to designers. Through our Emerging Artists Opera Prize, the VO Emerges season presentation, our Technical Training Program and the Victorian Opera Youth Chorus Ensemble (VOYCE), we provide professional experiences, education and training to engage all and develop practical skills.

In recognition of our unique contribution to Australian theatre, Victorian Opera joined the National Performing Arts Partnership Framework in 2021. This rightfully positions Victorian Opera alongside national companies in the country's performing arts arena.

We continue to employ hundreds of people across the creative industries, recruit some of the finest local and national singers, and collaborate with Australia's leading companies, venues and learning institutions. We continue to perform in the grandest theatres and concert halls to give you the best possible experience.

Join us to experience the strength of the human voice, the indefinable power of music, and storytelling at its finest.

And please, come as you are.
